“ Dad,

A little girl's first superhero is always her daddy, and that was so true for me. Growing up we did everything together for there was nothing I thought you could not do. Now, looking back heartbroken through all the memories I am reminded just how close we were. I feel a piece of me missing.

I am saddened beyond belief at losing you. No amount of preparation could make this time hurt any less. What I do know, and I what I promised you, is that I will make sure you are always remembered and never forgotten, for I am just like you. You will continue living on in my life and I will share all the teachings, stories, and silly fun with your precious Jordan Jai. He resembles you in so many ways. I am certain you will watch over us and make you presence known. I know this because you already have shown us this week.

Thank you for the wonderful memories that will be cherished for my lifetime. I will do my best to continue making you proud and as you would always tell me, "I make you look good".

I love you and miss you

“ As kids, we lived together, we fought, we laughed, we cried.
We did not always show the love, that we both had inside.
We grew to find we have a love that was very strong.
It's a love shared by our family, that will never fade away.
You are my brother not by choice, but by the nature of our birth
I could not have chosen a better one, you were the best on earth.
For having you in our lives, we've all been blessed.
But now the time has arrived, for you to rest.
No more suffering, sickness, and yes not even pain.
Ma and Pa always said, God only takes the best.

Oh, Jeff I will miss you terribly, you were my Big Brother.
I hope you know how much you meant to me, I loved you dearly.
You will always be forever in my heart.

Love,
Janet
