

Albin F. Borkowski

September 30, 2018

Born to Eternal Life September 30, 2018 at the age of 90 years. Preceded in death by his loving wife Bernice (nee Kaminski); his parents Feliks and Antonina; his sisters Wanda, Sophie (Henry) Behlke and Felicia (William) Kowalkowski; and his brother Chester (Bernadine). Further survived by his nieces and nephews Irene (Barry) Riggs, Chesterine Lombardo, the late William Kowalkowski Jr., Susan (the late John) Plewa, Robert (Brenda) Behlke, Richard Behlke, John (Judi) Behlke and Nadine (Latif Jr.) Hukarevic. Also survived by many in-laws, other relatives and friends.

As a graduate of the old Milwaukee Boys' Tech, Al became a master electrician and enjoyed a long career with Westinghouse. He was a member of IBEW Local 663. His skills sent him across the country, rebuilding generators at power plants, hydro-electric dams, and other industrial sites. Even Al's military service during the Korean Conflict proved valuable when he was sent to Greenland to build a submarine base. All his skills were useful in activities he and Bernice enjoyed especially at Federation Life Insurance of America. Through Bernice's family in Mauston he learned deer hunting, camping, fishing and family stories. But most important to Al was the Catholic faith. It was because of his example of living his faith that he became a godfather to many children.
