“ He was so much more than just Grandpa. Growing up he was my best friend, and spending weekends together was my highlight. I loved every moment from just watching Brewer/Packer games together to him teaching me card games, dominos, how to roll out homemade tortillas, Spanish words, or even the million ways to use Duct Tape. It didn't matter what game I came up with or what I wanted to do; he went along with all of it. While all that was great, I will never forget what he taught me most, ALWAYS DO YOUR BEST & DON'T GIVE UP. It wasn't just something he said when I needed to hear it, but it was his life. As a kid I saw his commitment to not let any physical restriction stop him from doing things with me. To be able to play catch, ping pong, and other actions that most wouldn't attempt in his situation, he never let it keep him from doing it all. As I got older, I learned of physical restrictions, and witnessed new health challenges over the years. None of these things ever changed his approach to life. Whatever had to be done to get through the next challenge, he did it. There was no complaint or feeling sorry. HE DID HIS BEST & DIDN'T GIVE UP. With each of these passing moments I watched in amazement at the person he was and the example he set. When I face any challenge in life, he is the first person I turn to in my head, and I immediately know how to move forward. I will never forget these moments or this very important lesson, and I will assure our boys Beau and Kaden know this story.

He didn't just do his best at being my Grandpa, HE WAS MY HERO! He may not be present on earth, but he is now present with us always as our guardian angel.

“ I will miss you dad! But I know you are surrounded by loved ones in heaven and walking in the arms of Jesus. I remember when I was young you would take me and my brother to church after work and pray for all those you loved. Your kindness to give to St. Jude to fight for cancer will also stay with me. We will be together someday.

Love you, your daughter.

“ Alfonso was very proud of our country and patriotic. Even though he was paralyzed he worked his entire life. All he would ask is for you to remember him in your prayers. To him family was everything. Loving husband, loving grandfather, loving great grandfather.
