

Alice E. Skenandore

November 12, 2021

(nee Trisler) Alice Skenandore was born in 1936 in Cleveland, Ohio to the union of Paul and Grace Trisler. Alice received her formal education from the Ohio Public School System. She was of Pentecostal Faith at Oak Creek Assembly of God and loved the Lord.

Alice was an amazing waitress at numerous prominent establishments. She also prided herself on working at Murray Medal Foundry where they produced Harley Davidson parts. She was funny, caring, and a good woman with a big heart. She could always be counted on to share a laugh or two with you. She loved family and her door was always open. She was not afraid to say she loved you. Some of Alice's favorite things were her love for Louis L'Amour, Jewelry, Indian Fest, Dream Catchers, Dolls, Detective Shows, Solitaire, Mexican Food, Mint Patties and Lennon Kisses.

Alice Skenandore passed away on November 12, 2021 in Milwaukee, WI at the age of 85 years. She was joined at the gates of heaven by her father Paul Trisler, mother Grace Trisler, three daughters; Georgine, Audrey and Paula that she adopted out in her earlier life and later reunited, three siblings; Nancy, Cecilia and Bill. Alice is survived by her children; Maggie Parrish, Faye Whitehead, Jeffery (Rhonda) Parrish, Kim and Sheila Skenandore. She will forever live in the hearts of her grandchildren; Erin, Lin-dsey, Ken Davis, Natesha Parrish, Kelsey Parrish, Brandon Parrish, Trinity (Jesus) Barbosa, Jonathan Parrish, Johnathan Zarbuck, Sarah Rose, Melissa Kay and Cassity

Skenandore. Alice was loved dearly by her many great-grandchildren who could always brighten up her day and make her smile. She is further survived by her long life friends; Fred Patsch, Sharon Bentley, Lynn House, Stanley Loveday, Artavia Williams-Sandoval, Marguerite Reyes and Anna (Lola) Gonzalez and a host of nieces, nephews and other beloved extended family and friends.
