“Sadly, I got the news of Ambrose's passing while attending the Brewers Hospitality Training session today. At work, he was a quiet and gentle man, whom I loved - a good friend. We had many in-depth discussions about all kinds of things. We shared a love for the Brewers, our job, our families, and our country. We didn't always agree, but DID always respect each other's opinions - which made him a joy to talk to. I recall last year, as his health began to fail, how he never complained. I'm grateful that I got to thank him for his service to our country. My heart is heavy tonight. I will dearly miss his kindness, his dedication, his heart; but, mostly his smile and that twinkle in his eyes. He was one of a kind! I plan to see him again, at our joyful reunion in heaven before our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. My heartfelt condolences to his family and friends.

"I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved his appearing." (2 Timothy 4: 7-8) ESV
