“ My father was loyal to us and mom. Every day he told her he loved her. He always said she was his wife and girlfriend. They met when she gave him a cup of coffee. Their love life began with a cup of coffee. They held hands until he completed his journey.

He loved us unconditionally. Always there to listen and guide us.

He was not only a grandfather to some of his grandchildren but a father figure.

I have many fond memories of my father and will remember him always.

Love you papi

Angel Maximo Silva (me and most of the family called him Maximo) was a great friend of mine. We grew up together next door to each other in Mayaguez. As children, we used to gather after dinner with the other neighborhood children to play children's games. We used to play hide& seek, tag games, and all the games children used to play in that era. Then I came to Milwaukee as a teenager and lost track until I saw him in Milwaukee one day when his family moved here. Him, his brother Samuel and his sisters Isabel and Tita are like siblings to me. We grew up together.

I'm going to miss you my friend but you are now in a better place and out of pain. RIP!
