“ Dear Judy, Mary and John,
Fritz and I have been thinking of you these last few days as you celebrated your wonderful mother's life and sent her on. I remember her visits on Bitterfield and have enjoyed Judy's stories about her perseverance in these last few years. She has been an inspiration from afar in many ways, even her persistence in determining where she would live, and insisting on new shoes! I know that each of you and your children will have lives of memories to share, but I also know how deeply you will miss her. She has left us with wonderful friends in you, and for that we are most grateful.
Special love to Elizabeth and Sarah. They have been devoted granddaughters and clearly have given your mother much joy. With love, Pam and Fritz

Mary:
You may nit remember me from our Dominican days. I was Genie Lavin then - now Genie Bosch.

Just now saw Barb Kovats Tuttle's Dominican facebook update which let your old classmates know of your mother's passing. I send my sympathy.
