

Anthony M. "Bino" Flowers Jr.

September 1, 2023

Anthony Melvin Flowers Jr "Bino" was born May 9, 1985 to Anthony Melvin Flowers Sr. and Tina Marie Goeman in Milwaukee, WI. He was baptized June 16, 1985 and had his first communion at the age of 9. He graduated from Pulaski High School in 2003 and went on to take improv classes at Second City in Chicago.

Bino had a passion for writing scripts for TV shows and movies. He created his own stage name Melvyn Flores. One of his favorite movies was the original 1978 Halloween.

Since a child Bino loved movies, wrestling and the Milwaukee Bucks. He was a family guy and spending time with his mom meant everything to him. Next were his nieces and nephews. He shared a special bond with his first born nephew Isaias "Izzy", the family called them best friends and that same love was shared with Jericho Jr. He passed down his love of wrestling to the boys and took them to summer slam in Las Vegas.

He is preceded in death by his grandma's Deana Goeman and Lucille Binns, his grandpa's Phillip Goeman, Johnnie Flowers and George Binns. His aunts Valerie Rash and great aunt's Florence and Opal. Bino leaves to cherish his memories, his mom and step father, Aaron & Tina Kelly, his father Anthony Flowers Sr. His brother's Jericho (Stephanie) Flowers and Christopher Flowers. God Mother Theresa Hernandez, God sister's Nicole Cutsforth, Crystal and Kimberly Hernandez, God brother Danny Hernandez. Aunts Mildred Santiago, Brenda (Lavonna) Davis and Linda Flowers. Vicky Goeman, Tami (Peter) Howe. Uncles Johnny (Gail) Flowers, Alvin (Sharon) Flowers and Monte Goeman. Nephew's Isaias Flowers, Jericho Flowers Jr., Jasmine Flowers, Mya Flowers, Angelica Flowers, his fur brothers Moon and Coco and Mr. Floyd their family bird along with a host of cousins and friends.

“ To my beautiful daughter Tina your in my prayers and thoughts. Bino was such a wonderful young man . He would come visit us in South Carolina. When he was young took him to Myrtle Beach with Jerry and Nichole Copeland and Jericho. We had a blast even though it was storming. Then when I moved to AZ he would come visit us there play basketball in the heat we took him and the kids different places love to sit and talk to his uncle Roland and Aunt Florence. Rest in paradise my sweet nephew. Your going to be missed. Keep smiling down on us and watch over the family. Love Aunt Terri And Uncle Leo Aguirre...
