“ Whenever Anthony was nearby he would change the vibe of any situation, I'll never forget all the times we went to the mall right after school, losing you hurt like losing my own blood, I just wish I could have gotten to tell you how big of an impact you had on me, but I know you watching down on all the peeps you was with, I'm hoping I'll see you up there whenever it's my time, everything's been empty since you passed brudder, I hope you know how much we care for you Anthony, you was the realest person I ever meet, you were the closest friend I ever had, and I'll never forget how you would never pressure nobody to do anything they didn't want to and how you would always make sure everyone was included in the hangout, stay strong up there for us brudder

“ Anthony and I met in the Challenge Academy Class 53, and almost instantly clicked. We had each other's backs as much as we could in the academy. I will never forget the amount of self growth he showed in the time we were together and I will never forget the times he made the barracks just a little warmer with his jokes.

“ I was one of Anthony’s teachers at Audubon. Anthony brought a very unique energy to our classroom, always with a playful spirit and a desire to sneak out of class every time he had a chance. There was never a dull moment with Anthony around. Nevertheless, he never failed to find me to explain the reasons for his actions and his plans for improving. Anthony was a very special young man and his absence will have a lasting impact on all of us. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you as you navigate through this difficult time. With deepest sympathy,

“ When I found out the news that my friend Anthony had passed away I kept telling my self it can't be real it can't be and when I found out it was real it was a weird day knowing that I would never have good conversations with him and another kid he always came to me and another student about are problems and we would always help him or find a way too he was a good person I know a lot of people said hurtful things about him but I'm gonna miss the times I had with him and I just can't believe that Anthony will not be here with us and I wouldn't be able to ask him what class he got and show him some new songs LLA 🕊️

“ For the time I knew Anthony it was something about him I didn't know what it was into I actually had real real convos with him I sat down in class with Anthony with our guy and we actually got the understanding out of him everyone was against him at one point of time as we kept trying to push the peace the person that Anthony actually is nobody would understand he was his own person he had his own ways he had his own crowd if you didn't get along with Anthony he wouldn't cause a problem he would leave it alone or try and come push peace the last couple of convos I had with him i wish we could shot some memories from day one he always kept his loyalty and to this day on out I will forever remember it

“ I'm Siylas' girlfriend. I didn't know Anthony but I remember calling Siylas and I remember him telling me all the fun and joy that Anthony brought into his life. It truly seemed like Anthony was the light in the darkness. He will always have my respect and love for lifting up so many people who needed it. The world lost an angel too soon and Anthony will not be forgotten. Long Live Anthony Novak.

“ I wanted to write again, every day I remember the happiness that Anthony brought whether it was me and him listening to music together, dodging the gaze of teachers doing stuff we probably shouldn't have, I'll always cherish every conversation, every breath I breathed in his presence and every moment we shared

“ I had the pleasure of being Anthony's teacher at Audubon. I look back now and value and miss the conversations I had with Anthony about school, his future, and life. I always walked away from our conversations impressed with Anthony's maturity and true desire to have a good future. I will sincerely miss the light he brought to my life and the lives of people around him.

“ My condolences, Anthony was such a bright soul and he always made everyone around him feel like they were so important. He was taken so soon and it was so much sooner than any one of his many friends wanted. Me and him were so close, we walked home almost every day and went to the dollar store to get snacks together. Now that he's gone I cherish those memories so much more than I did. I took all the time we spent together for granted. Rest in Peace Anthony you'll be missed
