“ I remember, when I was about 5 years old, asking my Mom where Mrs. Krass slept. I thought she lived at Baran Hall because she was there every time we were! She continued to be one of the most reliable volunteers for the next 50 or more years at the Basilica, the Polish Center, Polish Fest and other places and events. Along with my own parents she was a real role model of community service to me and many others. Rest in peace. Love and sympathy to the Krass family from the Krawczyk family.
