I had the privilege of spending all my summers right next door to my Auntie Cecil and Uncle Harry. The summers and memories made were right out of the movies! From Uncle Harry's pickles to Auntie Cecil's Polish dancing lessons and of course learning the Polish national Anthem, which I still remember! See you both on the other side of the lake!

My Auntie Cecil was one of a kind. From her unique laugh, to her sparkling eyes, she was so special! My cousins and I would spend time with her up north every summer. She taught us to polka, sing the Polish National Anthem and to be proud of our Polish heritage! Our family gatherings were always more fun when Auntie Cecil and Uncle Harry were there. Though I'm very sad to have lost her, I know she is happy to be in heaven with her beloved husband. My deepest sympathy to her family.
