“ I was saddened to hear of Connie’s passing. I remember her visiting the Amberg area many years ago. It was always a treat to see her as it felt like she was always so happy to catch up on family. God speed on your heavenly journey, Connie.

“ Connie was my friend right from the start when they moved to Arizona. We laughed, partied, and had good times. We were in Red Hatters. She asked me to be her capper when she received her green cap in Albuquerque. When i moved back to Michigan, I stayed at her place for the weekend. When I went back to Arizona to receive my red stole from the Moose Connie went back to receive her honors too with me. When she moved back to Wisconsin, she still caled me during the year. I love you Connie. Say hi to my Cal in heaven.
