“ I had her seventh and eighth grade at Saint Matthews school. Ms. Roybal helped me realize I had gifts that I should share with others. This little light of mine I'm gonna let it shine.

Auntie Chello was a wonderful, loving person. She loved Jesus, every one in her large family and so many friends. She was my mentor all my life and always there for me. She was funny, loving, so educated and always happy to hear from everyone. We will all miss her dearly.

*I was in her 8th grade homeroom at St. Matthew's in Detroit in 1977-78. She had the last stanza of The Road Not Taken by Robert Frost across the front of the room above the blackboard. She was a kind, and encouraging teacher who inspired us to be our best. What a wonderful legacy.*
