Dario Miranda was a loving husband, and a God fearing man that always put his family first. Dario Miranda's favorite pastime was fishing. He would enter tournaments and would always win First Place. He was a man of many talents, and did anything he put his mind to. He made sure that his family never went without an ear to listen, a mechanic, a chef, or a handyman. He took immense pride in his wife, children and grandchildren, and made sure the world knew it. He also made everyone aware that he was the protector of the family, our rock and our shield.
