No matter how you felt about him he has kids who have done nothing wrong. Who no matter what loved their dad. Putting something like this out there on there fathers obituary totally speaks to the kind of person you truly are.

Sabrina - May 13, 2023 at 12:32 AM

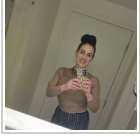

Who puts this on someone's obituary page? What is wrong with you?

“ David was always there for me and my mom. I knew Dave since we were just kids. Dave was a loyal loving friend. I will miss all of his crazy antics. My mom will definitely miss him lending a helping hand and she will definitely miss his big hugs followed by him saying I love you Mom. My deepest condolences to his children and family.

“ Never a dull moment with Dave! He definitely put that unpredictable spice into life. He has the heart of a protector and coined the phrase, "I don't get mad, I get Dave." You are missed! Our hearts go out to his daughter Temperance & his family.

“ From the moment you first opened your eyes and drew your first breath you have had a life with many twists and turns. During that journey you have had many ups and downs but always showed your strength. You had many love's and friends and a family that you loved dearly. I was there when you peacefully closed your eyes and drew your last breath to pass into heaven. We will miss you.

Oh no, I am so sorry for your loss. I used to hang out with Bobby and Dave quite a bit back in the day.

Bobby: I don't have any way to contact you directly otherwise I would have tried to reach out and offer condolences. If you see this, I am SO sorry for your loss. I can't believe this is actually real.

I was lucky enough to see Bob and Dave a few years ago during a visit to Milwaukee and now I will always treasure that memory.

Oleszek family: you are in my thoughts. Deepest condolences.
