“ My deepest sympathy to the Dufton family. I worked for many years with Dawn at Blessed Savior East. We taught together and shared many cups of coffee before school began. She and I were usually in the building early and had time to visit before the day began. After I left, we continued to meet for breakfast or lunch at George Webbs. She was a wonderful teacher who loved her students. I will remember all those fun times. She was a dear friend and will be missed. Many thoughts and prayers are with her and the family.

“ She was a co worker of mine and I know how much she will be missed. I loved working with her at Our Lady of Grace. She was my sounding board, helper and great friend. Hugs and prayers to her mom and sisters.
