“ My favorite memories of Auntie Dorothy are the letters we sent back and forth from Wisconsin to Maryland. She was so old-fashioned in loving this amazing communication and each time I opened a letter, it felt like Christmas! Humor, love, and support always came across in her beautiful penmanship.

*I will miss you, Auntie. Your soul is pure gold.
Love always,
Kari*

“ I will so miss you, Aunt Dorothy. You were always such a positive presence in my life. From your wonderful roll-up pancakes on Saturday morning sleepovers, to your delightful giggle and beautiful smile, I have such wonderful memories of you. I will always think about the fact that you never said an unkind word to me, and that you were always thoughtful and caring.
