Dorothy lived in her home in Milwaukee for over 50 years where she cherished her time with Stanley before he passed in 1999. She enjoyed her friends, and loved dancing and attending events at the Polish Center with them. Her last few years were spent at Regency Senior Living in New Berlin and most recently at Castle Senior Living in memory care. The family would also like to thank the staff at both senior living centers, and also Rhonda Ninneman who was there when other family members couldn't be.
