“ I will always remember Uncle Duane how happy he was when you visited. He always wanted to give you something when you were leaving. No matter what he gave, you felt the joy of his giving. I wish I would've spent more time with him. I will certainly miss him.

“ To my wonderful neighbor on 27th. You always watched out for anyone messing with my car. You always let me know when the mailman was here. Or when you got that huge bag of popcorn and stopped by my apartment to have me get a container so you could share it with me. I'm sorry I moved without saying goodbye to you my friend. You were a wonderful man ! You rest in peace now and go fly with the Angels. Your neighbor and friend Kathie
