“ My cousin, Ed, was a man of solid character. He was quiet, but always said what he meant and meant what he said. We grew up in the same house on 9th Place in Milwaukee. Our family lived upstairs and his lived downstairs with our Babcia (Busha); my dad and his mom were siblings. I laugh now when I remember him singing a song with only one line in Polish, "Nie wiem!" (Translation: "I don't know"). I don't know why he had to die so young, but I do know he will be missed.

“ I remember all of us, as kids, at Heartland, skating in winter and running on the big wrap around porch.
