“ *Many good memories at the Bialobrzkeski home as a kid. The old VW van, the pool, the parades, sleepovers, warm punchki's and the most wonderful family that I spent so much time with! They treated me like I was theirs! ❤️
RIP in peace Mr. B.

“ *We met Edwin and Millie from going to see Vern and the Originals. He loved to dance and show off his kick moves he said that he could still do because of the judo he learned. We'll miss seeing him around. We both work Monday and can't make the service.
Condolences, Tom and Lisa Hare.*

“ My condolences to Edwin's family above as well as his 6 living children (deceased is Daniel), grandchildren, first wife, Louise, plus his living sisters Alina Sedlak and Hanna Brzozowski and their families.

Edwin and his sisters and parents were immigrants from post world war two Poland. One can only imagine the fortitude necessary to build a life in an adopted country.

May they find peace.

“ I am so sorry to think that I'll never see Edwin kicking up his feet at polka dances ever again! I befriended Edwin and Millie many years ago and became a really good dancer thanks to them! I really enjoyed his company and appreciated that they had such a loving relationship. Stay strong Millie, there are so many people who love you and though it won't be the same without Edwin, he lived life to the fullest and had the love of the best woman he could have ever found.
