“ Liz is and always will be the Love of My Life. So many memories..... but the one I'll be holding on to the most is her love for me and our four amazing kids. She was a wonderful wife, an outstanding mother and my best friend. She loved with everything she had and I will truly miss her. I'm a broken man right now..... Remembering her love gets me through the hard times. I'm blessed to be able to still feel her love through our children Bishop, Kaylie, Aden and Avery. They are just like their mother, full of love. Liz would always tell me more hugs and kisses..... and listen more. Liz, my love, I promise to hug, kiss and listen more to our kids. I live for them now and will always be there for them. Thank you for all the memories. I miss you so very much but you'll always be with me. Love You!

“ One of my favorite memories with Liz was getting to be in the delivery room when she had bishop. We were both so young and pretty much scared, But getting to share the moment when her first child was born is something I'll never ever forget. She was my big sister and she chose me to be with her for such a big moment. Growing up I always looked at her like she was the most beautiful person in the world. Everything she did I thought was amazing. She always took the time for me. When most people in their early 20s pay no attention to the younger ones, She always did. She brought me a souvenir from each trip, bought me my first nikes, took me to the dells with her fiends, She always treated me so amazing when I was a kid. I love u Liz. I'm so happy you get to have the peace, and rest you so greatly deserved. Xoxo

“ Talks....Talk....Talks....Liz and I shared so many talks. Sometimes every day for a week and sometimes once a month. Sometimes just to tell me a quick story, sometimes to share her deepest thought. Elizabeth, how honored I feel.

For you to trust me, to feel free to be you, to want to share the smallest and biggest things in your life.....with me.

It's been a privilege girl.I will miss you. I'll see you again. Until then, spread those beautiful wings and fly.....Love,

Auntie Nancy

“ I was over bishops house so often as a kid that I felt like I was practically family. Liz always made sure that I was happy and comfortable whenever I visited as if I was one of her own children. Even later on when me and bishop moved out, she still constantly drove over to our new place unannounced to deliver us groceries and McDonald's. She loved us unconditionally and every moment i spent with her was precious to me. I love and miss you Liz.

“ *Our Deepest Sympathy! May God's love and peace surrounds the heart of her wonderful husband Ariel, lovely children and extended wonderful Family and may the beautiful memories be the strength of the days ahead. I remember the many awesome times we had and beautiful memories we shared together as family as recent as a visit a few months ago in Florida. Liz always gave me compliments on how much she loved / enjoyed my cuisine. We talked and always laughed at Chico's jokes. Her hugs, laughter and sweet smile will be greatly missed but we know she is in a better place as God decided to call her home and give her Rest. Until we meet again! Love you Liz ... “ We have sooo many beautiful memories with LIZ. For starters I loved going over there just to hang out for cocktails & going at it on the Wii in Tennis (It got Super competitive) 🤪 But my favorite & fondest memory was when we were having a family gathering at her house & my wife (Tahany) said to her "You don't have any sour cream, do you? " Liz said "Let me check". Well she had drove to Walgreens & bought her a tub of Sour cream lol As she gave it to her she looked her in the eye & smiled really big & told Tahany "Did you take a pregnancy test yet" 🤯 She knew before we knew that she was pregnant. God she was something else & never a dull moment. Liz will truly be missed the Godmother to my daughter & loved by many people 😊 May Allah guide her into heaven with open arms 🙏🙏🙏 WE LOVE & MISS YOU.

“ We've known Liz since our son & the twins were in little league. Then it carried over to football & basketball. Can't remember a time of her missing a game, no matter what she was doing. She was ALWAYS the first voice you would hear when the boys did anything. If it wasn't you cheering them on. You were always talking about plays with the hubby's. I can't remember how bad my stomach would hurt from laughing. While working the concessions stands with her. Liz you were an amazing wife, mother and sports mom. You will be missed everyday! Please remember that we will be here for Ariel & the kids for whatever they may need. We love & miss you! The Pooles

“ Liz was honestly one the most loving caring and sweetest people I have every known!! She always welcomed us with open arms a huge smile and a great time!! The love she had for my family was undeniably! One of my greatest memories was me in the hospital after having my first child Anajulisa. She didn't wait once they knew she was born they were the first ones to met their beautiful niece! Seeing her just did something to Liz she was in love from that first visit! She always spent time every time we were together to talk to the kids and genuinely care and was happy for all that they were doing in life!! I was married into the family just like her so we had a connection like no other. I will miss her smile and our conversations for sure. She really did bless us all and I know she's watching over all of us in heaven!! You are truly missed Liz! They really did gain a true angel!!

“ Share a memory, it’s kinda tough when you have so many. Everyday with her was a favorite memory she just had this way of lighting up an entire room with a smile or one of her many weird jokes. Maybe how she spent every summer trying to entertain her kids in basketball, tennis, soccer, just walking around. She was a caring individual she loved to love others and she showed me what it meant to be a truly loving human being and i could never thank her for the years of wisdom and happiness she taught me one the best memories i will always have is going to florida as a family, no matter what we did there she never complained she never asked to do anything she was just there to see everyone have fun i remember being in the lazy river at the hotel at night when no one was there and it was just us 6 we would float and play volleyball and whenever the ball fell out we would make one of the twins go get it i remember mom once accidentally scoped me in the face with the ball everyone was laughing so hard even me but my mom was asking if i was okay while trying to hold back her smile and laughter..it was such a wonderful smile i love ya mama i will miss you

She was always a natural at making people feel welcomed and belonged. Whether she knew you 10 years or 10 minutes Liz made you feel the love and happiness she exuded. Always a goofy joke and laugh to follow, it was never a dull time with her. She was the epitome of a cool mom, and you could tell just by how her kids looked at her. A natural social butterfly that now has spread her angel wings. She will truly be missed here, but is sure to make heaven an even more heavenly place. Love you Lizzard!!

My best memories of Liz was her smile, and hospitality, We as family enjoyed so many parties in her basement watching boxing matches and just talking and joking. Every year on Hollowing and holidays like Thanksgiving and Easter. we would gather and have so much fun, she would light up the room when she entered,. We will miss you and always love you. We will treasure the memories. Don't worry we will be here for the children and Ariel. Re "He/She was a wonderful person, and they will be missed." st In peace. Flight high young beautiful lady..

Liz was a wonderful person, and she will be missed.

*In the rising of the sun and in it's going down,
We remember them.
In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of the winter
We remember them.
In the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring,
We remember them.
In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer,
We remember them.
In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn,
We remember them.
In the beginning of the year and when it ends,
We remember them.
When we are weary and in need of strength,
We remember them.
When we are lost and sick at heart,
We remember them.
When we have joys we yearn to, share
We remember them.
So as long as we live, they too shall live, and are apart of us,
As we remember them.*
