“ For thirteen years Eric’s son Nolan has been the center of his life. Every Saturday they’d head out to the Madison Farmers’ Market to find their favorite vendors. Nolan always had high praise for his father’s culinary skills, often saying, “Dad fixes it this way and it’s the best.” They played and they hung out. They talked things over. Eric will be missed by all of us.

“ Eric was my friend and partner in raising our son, Nolan. Eric was a very good father. He worked hard and he did his best to be a good person and role model. Eric and Nolan enjoyed The Madison farmers market on Saturday’s, the Union, playing games, building Lego models and just hanging out together.

May you find peace and joy watching over Nolan from beyond ♡

“ Eric and I met in Pulaki highschool and worked on our cars in shop class and had a lot of good times growing up. I regret not keeping up our ties after graduation and over the years and know he will be missed. My condolences to the family.
