“ My condolences to Aunty Faye's Family. My thoughts and prayers go out to all you at this time of sorrow. I have this beautiful picture of Aunty Faye and my Mother, her sister Alice. My Mom and Dad had just moved up north and Aunty Faye drove up for a visit. They were so funny sitting there together, laughing at everything. Their sense of humor was astounding. It must be the Irish in them. 🍀 I took the picture with an instamatic camera. I've carried it with me over 4 decades. I was saddened that Aunty Faye's immediate family did not have an open service for ALL of her relatives and friends. I love and miss you.

♪ "When Irish eyes are smiling
Sure, it's like the morn in Spring
In the lilt of Irish laughter
You can hear the angels sing" ♪ 🍀

“ My condolences to my cousins and their families for the loss of their mother. When I had visited her the past few years she was still spunky and sassy as ever. Her smile was wonderful and she always had a twinkle in her eyes. She is the aunt whose name I share, as it's my middle name. Fly on the wings of angels Aunty Faye and rest in peace with. The family will be at the gates to welcome you.
