“Loved the jokes and camaraderie...and the wine, even that night I had too much and Jerry had to drive me home. Jerry had a wry sense of humor that you could miss if you weren't paying attention. A good cook! Best memory: Jerry and Bob claiming when they danced at the Gold Nugget, it was “free to get in, but you had to pay to get out!” Still laugh about that a couple of times a year. Good times! You and Glo knew how to live!! RIP, Jerry. Julie and Bob Giddings

“It was a pleasure experiencing the real estate process which Jerry (and Gloria) in the Florence area. In particular, we remember that cold January 4 in which he, Gloria, and we supervised the surveyor work necessary for the purchase to advance. We invited him into our warming car that day to stave off frost bite. We always enjoyed our visits with Jerry and Gloria in our Florence area. Jerry will be missed.

“ Too many memories to pinpoint a specific one. The ones that come to mind are cocktail cruises on Keyes lake in the original boat. Youper would take her around slow and then turn on the speed especially if I was trying to have a Titanic moment. Secretly trying to dump me out.

Will miss his cleverness and often corny sense of humor. Hope you have your jaunty beret with you. No one could rock it like you did!

The longhorns will always be in love. Love you! Sue bob
