“ I met Greg a few weeks ago while he delivered mail to my house. And before meeting him I heard that he was a nice guy. I'd like to express my condolences to his family and to his fiancée, Laura.

“ He helped me changed my brakes on my first car. He also always told me if i ate to many pickles I'd turn into a pickle. Because as a kid and i Still do, I love pickles and ate them all the time. We were so close when we were younger as we got older you had your daughter and grand daughters to care and worry about. I so wished we reconnected after things settled and talked more. You always were there to throw your two cents in and your thoughts and suggestions and even oniopnss, all because you cared and loved me. We will miss you. Xoxoxo

“ I still can't believe you are gone big brother you were young 54. Your granddaughters adore their Papa. You can be a stubborn person sometimes but you took care of mom making sure ok. It's probably because u two are so alike and can handle each other. I remember you help me buy my first car. We had to drive from brown deer to my old house on 26 st. I told you I never drove on the freeway you said suck it up buttercup got to do it sometimes. I did and was fine. I love and miss you. Even know we argue sometimes I know you love and care for me.
