“ Dear Mike and Michelle,
Joe and I are sending out thoughts and prayers to you and all the family during this time of sadness and grief. I am sure you know this about your dad but I want to let you know what he meant to me. Your dad was one of the kindest, gentlest, and funniest men I have ever known. His generosity and love always shone through when we visited Milwaukee in the summers and the memories I have of visiting with your family are some of the fondest memories I have. Time in Milwaukee was always so fun when spent with both Betty and Harold, and all of us Szymanowski girls couldn't wait to get there from the Dells. His "wild" driving that drove Betty crazy, the car trips we would take all over the city to get the freshest and best "brats" to take back east, and the cream puffs (with real whipped cream) he would always sneak into the bag for us kids from the bakery are sweet memories of time spent with your dad I will cherish for the rest of my life.

I am so proud to have called him family. And I will miss knowing that he has left this world, but will take comfort in the fact that his sweet soul is now in heaven with Betty and they are both now undoubtedly toasting being together again with a "Brat and a beer."

Sending our thoughts, prayers, and most of all love.

Kathy and Joe

“ Our memories are filled with joy and laughter recalling those family get-togethers, seeing Harold and Betty along with our other kin dancing, joking, and having a great time. Please accept from me and my family our prayers that our Father in Heaven comfort and hold you during this time, and that you find peace when the sorrow has ebbed in its time. Fair winds and following seas, Harold. Our family and indeed our nation are blessed to have known you.

“ Mike and Michele, I always thought of your dad as more of a brother than a cousin. I guess that is why you get to call me “Uncle Norbie”. The visits we had from when we were children until now with Grandchildren, even Great Grandchildren were always so much fun. We always remembered birthdays. Now he is united with his beloved Betty. Rest In Peace Harold and God bless you both.

“ With Uncle Harold you always knew he loved you and you walked away smelling like his cologne to remind you that you were loved ❤️
So lucky to call you my family
