“ I spent my teenage years at Ms. Haydee's home. And as an adult I always made it a point to stop in every time I would go to Milwaukee and visit. My trip would never be complete unless I sat and drank coffee with her. I always thought she would live forever because she never seem to age. I guess God wanted her more than we needed her here so he has called her home. I pray you are at rest and visiting with old friends, grandkids. And looking down on everyone who life you touch. You was a great person but more importantly and awesome human being.

“ Haydee was my father's sister. Because of divorce, I did not grow up knowing much about my father's side of the family until I began a search and connected with her and my half f sister, Nilda. She treated me like family and could not have been more loving when I visited them both in Milwaukee in the early 2000s. My heart goes out to her loved ones, which includes me now. Descances en paz, tia...
