“ *I know it hurt you;
It hurt me too,
But now that you're gone
All I know is I miss you. 😞*

*You were there for so long, you were my father from 3 years old
I never thought you would leave.
I thought you had another year
Waiting up your sleeve.*

*The day that you left
Was the saddest of my life.
I remember sitting at home
And crying all day and night.*

*I might be selfish,
But I wish you were here
Or that you stayed
For one more year.*

*I know you loved me,
And I still love you too,
So I'm trying to be strong
Just for you.*

*I know I'm not perfect.
I know I'll never be.
I just hope you're up there
And that you're proud of me.*

*You had to let go
Even though you were holding on for so long,
But there's not a day I don't think of you
And how you were so strong.*

I just want to tell you

*That you're always in my heart.
Even though I still cry,
I know we're not apart.*

Thinking of you, Grandpa... 🧓

“ Mis recuerdos de Tio Lincoln siempre serán de un hombre fuerte, trabajador y muy valiente. También se que tío decía honestamente lo que pensaba y eso le daba determinación en toda tribulación que tuviera.

Mi tío me llamaba “chiquilla linda”. El día de las madres era siempre un día muy especial porque tío venía a ver a Nana. El nos hacía reír y nos contaba historias de sus paseos a las diferentes playas de Costa Rica. Yo me acuerdo ir en tren a Puntarenas, con tío y toda nuestra familia. Gozábamos el día entero jugando en el mar.

Se que hiciste mucho por mi mamá, y por nosotros tío. Por eso te agradezco eternamente. Ahora descansa mi tío y comparte la felicidad de encontrarte con tus padres, hermanas y tu sobrina Giselita.

Tengo fe de que la muerte no es el final de nuestra identidad sino tan solo un paso necesario dentro del misericordioso plan de nuestro Padre Celestial para la salvación de Sus hijos.

Te amo mi tío Lincoln.

“ How many people in my neighborhood was blessed with his knowledge, his help, his caring, so many, uncountable. But my best memory will keep always in my mind when we were little kids, he was the only person in the neighborhood with a television, he let us watch a lot of episodes of movie series, the only condition he asked: please don't make any noise and we stay there very quiet, who can forget. Thank you, don Lincoln.
