“ I can hear him saying his daughter's name, "Elisabeth", and all the love that flowed from him to you. I wasn't always around but he seemed to enjoy saying your name and it was the same every time. I looked for it because it gave me joy. When I saw you look at him it was for certain you loved your father. I spoke to him Wednesday when he was in the hospital and he talked about how all of you, kids and grands had decided. He was clear and spoke with the same certainty all Wrights have. He told me about his brother they called Phat. I love my Uncle. O.D. loved his baby brother.
