“ Uncle Jim, you were a fighter until the very end. Seeing you smile and giving me a strong hug with the strength you still had even on your last day. I only regret we didn't get to hunt the birds on the Mississippi like we planned. I am sure your enjoying skies full of birds and beautiful weather. Until we meet again keep a spot open in the blind for me.

“ Jim, you were always my shadow from the day you were born.
That's what brothers do. Even as a adult we were together. Our best times was when you got your cabin, close to me. Cook outs, hunting and cigarettes runs will never be the same without you.
Our last day together in the hospital was the hardest day. You knew the truth but was more worried about mine and Dorcas health.
We said our love and Goodbyes. You said your wishes and I will make sure I care them out. Kathy will Always be in our family. I pray God gives us all strength to get through this We love you!
Till we are together again... Tad

“ Awesome neighbors, Jim and Kathy. He kept us on our toes, with his beautiful yard perfectly manicured! Every year it seems he would change it up a bit, it was always perfect and fun to look at. It did inspire us to keep ours lookin' good! What a nice man, the neighborhood will definitely miss him. Kathy, anything you need we are right next door. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.

“ My Dearest brother,
Thank you..
For always being there when I needed you. If it was a hug from your strong arms or advice from your warm caring heart
Thank you for bringing Kathy into our lives she has been your strongest supporter and advocate and I'm grateful you had her by your side
Thank you for hours and hours of endless conversations at the kitchen table with pots of coffee and doughnuts
Thank you for always saying "I love you Toots"
when you left to go home from a visit
Thank you for all the sweet nicknames you and only you called me.
Thank you for 55 years of laughs, tears and memories.
Thank you for needing me when you needed to talk through problems
Thank you for still listening to me but know I will have to look to the heavens for your guidance
Thank you for being someone that I am proud to call my brother.
I will love you forever.

“ It takes two men to make one brother~we were lucky enough to be 4. You weren't just my brother, but my friend. I will miss our long phone calls and the time we got to spend together hunting, fishing on our lake and being together with family. Thank you for always being there for our kids. You always treated Jr. like a little brother, more than like a nephew. You share a "brother bond" with all your nephews. You had the biggest laugh and widest smile that lit up a room!

We will hold tight the memories we all shared with you. You will always have a special place in our hearts for the one we call "our little brother."

You will never be forgotten, for you gave us so much to remember!

Thankful for the time we had with you~

Rest in peace my "little brother"

Love Forever~Don and Deb

“Jim will be rembered by his friends and family for his good natured spirit, willingness to help and share and loving heart. While always trying to display the tough guy image, he was genuinely sincere and willing to do what ever he could. He will be forever missed as a hunting and fishing buddy as well as a beloved brother and uncle. Our prayers are with with you knowing you no longer are suffering. Jack and Gail
