“Katie and family,

I am so sorry for your loss. Jim was a wonderful, kind and caring person. I so appreciated his help with the high school program while I was at St. Roman. He was a teacher through and through. He always had a smile and encouraging words for me. Heaven has gained an angel. I know that he will always be looking over you. I will miss his smile and laugh.

“Jim was a teacher by nature, even when no longer by profession. One profited every occasion to converse with him. He would be well versed in a variety of subjects, but, passionate about family and family values. What can be said other than he emanated “goodness” and “love,” valuable commodities that Jim possessed in wealthy abundance and have, surely, earned him a reward in the afterlife.

We will miss him, his wit, his sense of humor, and his kindness. His love, however, we will cherish forever.

*As Shakespeare’s Antony said of Brutus:
“His life was gentle, and the elements
So mix’d in him that Nature might stand up
And say to all the world ‘This was a man!’”*

Love you, dear brother!

“ Jim was such a friend to me in college. When my girlfriend broke up with me, Jim drove me from Winona to Milwaukee hoping to reconcile with her. It didn't work, but Jim and I became so close during that drive. He was truly a gentleman, and what a football player! The last time I saw him was in 2013 at our 50th class reunion at St. Mel H.S. What a great guy.

“ First, I want to extend my deepest sympathy to you, Jim's family. I really liked Jim so very much. He was always smiling and willing to talk with me about things. Our world was a better place because of Jim and now heaven has become a better place. Rest In Peace, my friend.

I played a lot of softball with Jim and totally enjoyed his talent and competitiveness. I know he brought out the best in me when we were on the field. I'm going to miss Jim. He was a good, good man.
