

Jane C. Sweeny

November 15, 2023

November 15, 2023 at the age of 83 years. Jane was born November of 1939 in NYC. Her father was a chemist from Bergen, Norway. She was placed in the New York Foundling Home in NYC. She was adopted by Harry and Alice Sweeny. They would later adopt her sister, Eva.

She grew up and enjoyed her father's Lollipop Farms in Syosset, New York. She studied accounting at Syracuse University and did personal and corporate tax work. She married Robert Thompson and had children Bob, Jimmy, Elizabeth and Lance. She was divorced and later married Walter J. Wozniak and they had a son Walter K. Woznick and later divorced. Jane was blessed with many grandchildren and great grandchildren.

After moving to Texas, as a pianist and organist she played for many churches into her 80's and always enjoyed classical composers and their works, particularly Debussy and Chopin. She was near her sister Eva and her husband Dick Mancuso and was surrounded by dear friends that she strove to keep in contact with through all of life's changes.

She loved her family and she loved the Lord Jesus Christ above all. Jane will be greatly missed, but her family is at peace knowing Jane is with her savior, restored and in no pain and full of the music she once played to the glory of the Lord.
