

Jeffrey A. Colgan

January 8, 2025

Beloved son, husband, stepfather, and friend, Jeffery Allen Colgan, passed away on January 8, 2025, at the age of 62. Born on May 23, 1962, in Nebraska, Jeffery spent most of his life in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

As a proud member of Iron-workers Local 8 of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, Jeffery spent his career building the city's skyline. His impressive career spanned numerous iconic projects, including the construction of Miller Park and several High-rise building along Lake Drive.

Jeffery's thirst for adventure led him to become an accomplished skydiver, competing over 400 jumps. His fearless spirit and zest for a life inspired those around him.

A passionate fan of heavy metal music, Jeffery was an avid enthusiast of guitar performances. He cherished the energy and creativity of live music, and his love for the genre brought him countless hours of joy.

At home, Jeffery was a devoted animal lover, surrounded by his beloved King Charles Spaniels, Oliver, Bridget and Chester, as well as a menagerie of cats, ferrets, and other furry friends.

Jeffery was also infamous for his bold and irreverent sense of humor, often leaving those around him in stitches with his raunchy jokes and witty one-liners. His humor was a hallmark of his personality, and he will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved him.

A celebration of Jeffery's life will be held on January 23, 2025, from 11:00am-1:00pm at Mount Olivet Cemetery and Mausoleum (3801 West Morgan Ave, Milwaukee, Wisconsin 53221). All are welcome to join us as we gather to share stories, memories, and farewell wishes.
