“ I have dear memories of my cousin Jenny; including when we were teens, we volunteered at the 94.5 WKTJ/March of Dimes Haunted House on Loomis Rd. We had so much fun together!! The other memory I will share is when she and I were staying overnight at our grandmother's house. We were so excited to be together that we decided to time our showers so that we would be quick and have more time to spend together. When I was in the shower, Jenny snuck up on me in the bathroom and took grandma's comb as a knife and was re-enacting the Psycho shower scene...unfortunately, the end of the comb ripped our grandparent's shower curtain!!! You left this world too soon Jenny, rest in peace!!
