“ Jo where do I start??? If I posted what I'd say to your face some people would be offended because we had a crazy unique relationship that only few would understand !! I know you are sitting and laughing because how do I say goodbye in the normal world without people freakin out!! Well our friendship was about being loud and crazy and carefree!!! We truly did things at the bar after softball that we would never do in the real world!! We played hard and laughed harder!! We met when you playing darts where I was the bartender 25 + years ago !! Than we played darts for that bar on different teams!!! I think it was our first time we were challenged with our friendship!!! But we survived and than came softball!!! You were one of the best pitchers ever, even when you threw the ball at me on third base and yup hit me in the face breaking my glasses!! Probably my fault but I never let you forget that!! Lol that's just the first few years of our friendship memories... Fourth of July waking you and Ron up because we were parking at your house for the parade!! !! All the ups and downs all the things that we did as loving each other!! Them damn candle parties!! Our kids growing up and how we became grandparents !!! All the life changes we shared !! We loved and we struggled but all that made our friendship so unique no one could understand , that's what I will miss the most!!! Your need to love me and my need to need you in my life yo love you more!! How do I say goodbye??? I'm smiling thinking you know what I can't say because most people wouldn't get our relationship and how we loved each other like no other!! PS I will always be here for your boys, and for Ron's kids!! I will forever be what you need me to be for your family!! But I will forever hurt with you being gone but you are in my heart, your spirit will live in my soul forever and I'll never forget you and I'll always talk to you every day!! Please show me your signs you are still here!! PS I already have felt you here!! I'll talk to you later today as I will every day!!!

“ To the Murack/Henry/Smith families, I am so sorry for your loss of such big part of your lives. On our last recent chat, she and I discussed "purpose" and walked through the things she was giving and demonstrating to all of you. What an amazing lady! I am so grateful to have been in her world; she was authentic.

“ What a strong and wonderful gal. I have never met someone with such convictions. You will be missed by so many. My sincere condolences to Ron, the boys, grandchildren. May you find peace from within knowing that our Lord and Savior is holding Jo Jo close in his arms. Now my dear friend, you are in true Paradise. I will miss your laughter, and your humor..... You may be gone, but you will never be forgotten. Until we meet again my friend..... Now go find Werner and have a couple of beers. Vivian Steiner

When our family of 6 children visited Milwaukee we would stay at the Muracks. We loved them all dearly. We have great memories. The John Peterick family, second cousins from northern Minnesota.
