“ I haven't kept in touch with John since he moved away from Chicago a few years ago. He was an awesome guy to be in a band with. I played bass and he played drums in the band Mortal Mess in 2011. We had a lot of fun recording our demo and playing some live shows. We wish we could've been more popular as a band. Who doesn't? But we gave it our best shot. I saw John play drums with a band at a gig a couple of years ago in Chicago and it was great to talk to him. Best wishes and love to John's family. His musical talent and sense of humor inspire me quite a bit. Offering my condolences,

“ I am sorry to hear John passed aaway. I knew him when we went to school at St. Gregory. He always talked to me about drums, cymbals and hardware. He turned me on to the band Sonic Distortion. Nice guy who loved making music. RIP John and my prayers and good thoughts go out to you aand your family. - Neil
