“ I want to send my deepest sympathy, condolences, and prayers to Cruz, Armani, and the rest of Jose's family and friends.

I always knew when Jose was at the school, whether he was there for Cruz or Armani, when I saw the motorcycle parked at the entrance I knew he was there. I'll never forget the day we had a parent with a dead battery at Family Fun Night. Jose was right there helping them out giving them a jump! He's was very caring and kind, just like his mother.

You will be forever missed and I will always be there for Cruz and Armani!

“ Man where can i start, sour cream! Me and you were never perfect! And as im sitting here they day before your funeral thinking wat can i say? Im not gone flex cause you always kept it real with me no matter if i wanted to hear it or not! You as a person taught not just me but a city of riders how to ride the right way! I could never admit this but yes you were the best rider in the city and its crazy cause last year wen I brought my bike I thought because it was a thousand CC's i was gone be able to keep up with you! I still remember you saying bring that like 1000 out so i can dust you! Lol! Nights it was 10 degrees and we would be the only 2 out here freezing but we wanted to ride! I just wish i can get that back at least 1 more time! Our relationship as friends, brothers was rocky at times but u was always there for me even wen i was wrong! I just was with you 2 weeks ago and now ill never forget your last words to me! “Dont Buy another rocket cause im not towing it for free this time if u fall off again”!! Brother Sour cream we lost a legend this week, a real rider and soldier! I just hope you up there smiling down on us all this summer as we ride and carry your legacy on !! I love you brother and miss you already! Sincerely your favorite President as you would call me Big Zah! #RIP #BIKERS #MIXFITS
