“ With my deepest sympathy to all the Feldens. These are the fond memories of Joey. I have of him growing up. Joey as was a customer of my parents. When the Milwaukee Braves won the pennant Joey was in the dugout with my Dad Sal. They knew the photographer from the Journal Sentinel who go them in there. We had a Spanarkel roast for the customers and Joey was walking the pig down Elizabeth Ave in St. Francis with a rope around his neck to be roasted. I can still see the image in my mind today. He will be remembered in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Barnabas Joseph Skrentny

As a relative of my uncle Joe by my mother Ann being his eldest sister I have known my Uncle Joe since childhood.

During world war 2 my brother Ray and I would visit my grandfather Barney and play with Uncle Joe on most weekends of the year. Grandad had a large fruit and vegetable garden which Uncle Joe and his brother Eugene were responsible for whilst his older 2 brothers Barney and Philip were fighting in World War 2 and his sisters Bernie and Florence and my mother Ann were helping out in my Grandfathers business.

When my father Raymond moved to Kewaskum to run his own Pharmacy our visits became more in frequent, but ill always remember our childhood friendships. It was Uncle Joe who encouraged Josh Felden to come and work in my offices in England, I recalled all the childhood memories. The best part of him sending Josh was it reminded me of our memories and introduced me to his very clever grandson.

My family Julia my wife, Barney my son, Shirley my daughter in law and my 4 grandchildren; Miriam, Abigail, Lydia and Jed send our sincere condolences to his family. We all remember him in out prayers and never forget him.

“ My prayers are with Mr. Felden and all of the Felden family. I will always remember and cherish the memories of going down to Chicago with Mr. Felden, my parents, my Uncle John and the boys catching a Brewers game at Wrigley Field. Mr. Felden always made me feel at home and welcomed. I thank the Felden family with sharing their dad with me. God Bless the Inspector and the Felden family!
