

Joseph J. Slowik

October 29, 2017

Born to Eternal Life October 29, 2017 at the age of 93 years. Beloved husband of Eleanore (nee Trzebiatowski) for 71 years. Loving father of Dale (Nina), Delbert (Anthony) and Donald (Carolyn). Proud and caring grandfather of Daniel (Sarah), Michael (Marna), Jason (Nancy), Joseph L., and Elizabeth. Great-grandpa to six. Dear brother of Louise (Gerald) Differt. Joseph will be greatly missed by Barbara Ann Slowik mother to Dan, Mike and Jason. Preceded in death by many brothers, sisters and in-laws. Also survived by nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Joe was a proud US Army Veteran that served during WWII and was a recipient of the Purple Heart. He was a dedicated 4th Degree Knight of the Knights of Columbus Pere Marquette Council #524 and Bishop Henni Assembly #1196, Tanner Paull American Legion Post 120 and St. Charles Borromeo Parish. Joe was a retiree of the Falk Corporation. He loved gardening, fishing, woodworking and cooking apple pies and Christmas cookies. Special thanks to Thaddeus Kozlowski for his kind and compassionate care given. In lieu of flowers memorials to St. Charles Borromeo building fund or Xaverian Missionary Fathers (4500 W Xavier Dr, Franklin, WI 53132) appreciated.

“ the people at blg 3 at the highlands apts. will remember joe. I especially will remember joe for his jokes at the franklin senior citizens club luncheons. after joe moved I kinda assumed his job as joke teller. we all will miss joe at franklin seniors. god be with joe's family and bring you comfort in the coming days. may your tears of today soon be replaced with he smiles of happy memories.. we at franklin seniors will remember joe that way. dick miller
