“ My Sweet Pea,

Our years together were truly special, and the pain of your absence still lingers. You passed far too soon. You often visit me in my dreams, though I'm not sure why!?! I recall our last conversation after Mary contacted me, I wished it went in a different direction, I can only hope you've found peace and even realized I was trying to look out for you with loving advice. You just weren't ready for it. I have a strong feeling our paths will cross again, perhaps as spirits, where we can find comfort and understanding in each other's company. There is something pretty powerful happening for me to feel some strange connection after your passing in which I can't even explain!

I'll never forget the love we shared, especially during its brightest moments. We laughed so much together! We also weathered some trying times together, and I was still quite heartbroken to learn of your passing a year later after you went to heaven.

Perhaps it was for the best; Nobody close to you would understand me losing it due to the time apart.

I'm sending you love all the way from Arizona—can you believe it? You would absolutely love it here! Imagine the ATV and side-by-side riding. Give your dad a huge hug from me. He was always so kind to me. I am also very sorry about the baby. Sending you love and light. xo
