“ Joe and I lived in the same neighborhood and I often stopped to talk to him when I took walks or bike rides. We liked to talk about his dog, Sheba, and his love of country and his fellow veterans. One evening, my husband and I were having pizza at Tanino's. It was karaoke night, and I asked Joe if he had ever sung karaoke. He said he couldn't do it by himself, so I asked him to sing karaoke with me. We sang Sonny and Cher's I Got You Babe. It's a very special memory. ❤️ RIP Joe.

“ Joe welcomed me to the How 2 Club over 10 years ago and always had words of wisdom. I heard his story and his experience, strength and hope. He was taken from us far too soon.

“ Jerry and I had a wheelchair race, and Joe beat us by about 2ft. But we started before him and he had a chair that looked like a racing wheelchair. So I think Joe in his wisdom hustle Jerry and I.
