

Judith "Judie" M. Miller

December 24, 2016

Judith (Judie) Marie Miller, age 77, of Milwaukee, passed away December 24, 2016, at St. Francis Hospital.

Judie was born in Crandon, Wisconsin to Helen Julia Bogie and Orville Neil Bogie. She graduated from Pulaski High School in 1956. In February of 1957, she married Gilbert (Gil) Miller at Holy Ghost Church in Milwaukee, WI.

She is survived by her loving husband of 59 years, Gil and her three children: Mike and his wife, Wendy (Young) from Oak Creek, WI; Monica and her husband, Andy Borkowski from St. Francis, WI; and Michele and her husband, Bob Becker from the Twin Cities Area. She is also survived by her grandchildren: Podkayne (formerly Matthew) Miller, Melissa (Danny) Bellinger, Corey Borkowski (Carol), Christie Borkowski (Jake), and Chris Becker; and her great grandchildren: Brady, Connor, Madelyn, Mackenzie, and Jase.

When she was in high school, she worked at Deaconess Hospital as a candy striper. After she was married, she worked at the VA hospital in Milwaukee and subsequently she worked at the 440th Air Force Base. When her children were of school age, she worked for ABF Trucking in billing. Before she retired, she was working at Foreway Express Trucking.

Judie enjoyed many hobbies over the years. She loved to sew and made Barbie doll clothes for her girls, as well as clothing for her children when they were young. She loved fishing, bowling, playing cards, going to BINGO and was a diehard Packer fan. One of her favorite places to visit was Elko, Nevada. In her later years, her favorite outings were visiting the museum (especially the IMAX shows) and taking drives along the lake shore.

Visitation Tuesday, January 3 from 10AM-12PM followed by a Funeral Service at 12 PM.
