

Kimberly McCullough

August 9, 2024

Kimberly McCullough (nee Rauker) Passed away on August 9, 2024 at age 62 years and is now reunited with her mother Rochelle (nee Roux) Flemmer, father Tony Rauker and brother Kenny Rauker. Kimmy leaves behind her stepfather Larry Flemmer, niece Elizabeth Rauker, great niece Lilyanne and nephew Nolan. Also survived by her aunts Paulette (nee Roux)(Dave) Miller, Jackie (nee Roux)(Paul) Raddatz and Fran (the late Dennis) Roux, her uncle Daniel (Danette) Roux, many cousins and second cousins.

Kim was known for her non-conforming free spirit, her love for Milwaukee (and Croatia!), Harleys, music, gardening, cooking and her many kittens over the years. Her greatest accomplishment was learning to ride a Harley and enjoying every second of it!

Kimmy graduated from Muskego High School in 1979. In her early years, Kimmy was a chef at Milwaukee Yacht Club and Chenequa Country Club. At the age of 35 she began a career at Harnischfeger Corporation (Joy Global) where she started as a coil taper and advanced to wiring control cabinets for shovels. When P&H took their operations abroad, Kimmy began working a variety of wiring jobs in the Milwaukee area.
