“ Even though my little Autumn wasn't Linda's biological granddaughter, Linda made sure to always ask for hug, a kiss and to let my baby girl know she loved her. Autumn was never left out when Grandma Linda was around.

She was always there for you when you needed her, especially when I needed a BOTTLE of coke back in the day! Our times together were always laughter and a lot of talks. Our children will never forget the times they shared when they were younger. Love you my sister Linda!
