“ What to say in tribute of a friend that has spanned your lifetime.

Thank you for being that person with a loving heart, ready to help in any circumstance. A rare treasure of friendship. Years and years of wonderful memories, funny stories, camping, off-roading, kids, parties, weddings and more. So sad we didn't have that last campfire and laugh about our adventures.

Lucy you will be deeply missed

“ I was extremely sorry to hear of Lucy’s passing. Her son, Richard and my son, Andy were classmates at St Roman’s School. Lucy and I worked together on their First Communion alter quilt. I always liked Lucy and my sympathies to her family.

“ My sympathies to Lucy's family and friends. When I was a manager at Columbia, I could always count on Lucy to help me each year complete my budget. She was patient and logical and always made me feel a little smarter. She was "one of the Good Ones."

I didn't have the longevity at CSM that Ross did, but I do recall the same and agree with Ross' comments. Lucy was great.

“ I knew Lucy when we were all young adults. My late husband, Bob Baumgart and Bob Kraut were friends. We couples went separate ways as adults. I remember Lucy as kind and generous, always a lady. I know she will be missed but never forgotten, and was never forgotten by our Lord. God bless her dear soul.
