“ I will miss every Wednesday calling you for your list and then on Thursday seeing you. I have shopped for you since Covid. I loved spending time with you at least 1-1/2 hours just talking about everything and anything. I loved that you always wanted to see videos and pictures of my grandson, Noah. I will miss your smile and your laughter. You welcomed me into your family and making me feel like a daughter. You will be truly loved and missed by me but I know you are with Ray and now you are truly happy. Love you always....Kathy
