“Condolences are extended to the entire Salinas family at this most challenging time. Manuel was one of our students at Vieau School. During that time, we saw many wonderful characteristics emerge. Perhaps it was his gentle personality or eagerness to please which stood out? Maybe it was his oratorical or theatrical talents? Or maybe it was his athletic skills. I can still see the smile on his face when he finished first in the 220 and 440 track events at South Stadium. Was he special? Indeed he was. As a husband, a father, a son and brother, Manuel was loved and adored by all that knew him.

We will never know why “Manny” was called to heaven so early in his life, but we do know that while he was here on earth he created excitement, shared love and left a lasting impression on all that knew him. May a perpetual light shine upon his soul and spirit. Rest In Peace our beloved student and friend.

“Fue un gusto haberlo conocido por medio de Verónica su esposa que fuimos compañeras de trabajo por algunos años y convivimos en varias ocasiones. Mis condolencias y sentido pésame para la familia y seres queridos. Que Dios lo tenga en Santa Gloria, puesto que creo que él fue una gran persona y querido por muchos. Un fuerte abrazo hasta el cielo. 🙏❤️🌸
