“ I always felt that she was an aunt to me too...always so loving and supportive. And her mushrooms in burgundy wine sauce were legendary. Blessings to Kathleen and family.

“ Aunt Marcy was 14 years old when I was born. She became my Godmother, and primary babysitter.
My earliest memory of her and I together is a cold, snowy night when I was about 4 or 5 years old. She took me to an Ice Capade type show in downtown Milwaukee. We travelled by trolley car, and it was a night filled with excitement!
I mentioned this to her a few years ago and she couldn't believe that I had remembered the event.
That's how Aunt Marcy was. She was always creating events that many great memories have grown from. Whenever I would come back home to visit, she made it a party, and another memory to cherish.

“ Aunt Marcy was the ultimate daughter, sister, mother, godmother, aunt, great aunt, great great aunt, anyone could ask for. Aunt Marcy was loved more than life alone. She was our best friend. We wanted to have her forever but knew some day God would want her more. Our hearts are broken, Aunt Marcy, but you left them filled with your love. RIP sweet Aunt. I will miss you and love you forever.
