“ I am saddened by the loss of Mario. I hired Mario many years ago (almost 20) and had too many laughs to count together at FedEx throughout the time I was in the New Berlin location with him. He was an amazing person and had an incredible work ethic and drive to do the best he could. I remember when he first started with us, the public bus dropped him off at the shopping mall and it was a long walk to the FedEx building. Mario made that walk every day and was always on time for work. I would leave the building and come get him whenever I could and we would share some laughs on way back to building. I will cherish the memories of Mario forever. My sincere condolences to his family.
